

OSHER LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE
COMMUNITY LECTURE SERIES
 Formerly Known As "One Shots"
 Ashland - Campbell Center - Classroom D
 Wednesdays 1:00 to 3:00 pm
No registration necessary - bring a guest!
www.sou.edu/olli
FALL 2009

Date	Presenter	Topic
September 16	Rick Saul	THE MOUNT ASHLAND STORY: Discuss the purchase of the ski area, the relationship between the Mt. Ashland Association, City of Ashland and the U.S. Forest Service.
September 23	Jeff Golden	A NEW AND UNAFRAID LOOK AT CITIZENSHIP: Expand your notion of what you can accomplish through politics. Using the book Unafraid , Jeff will challenge audiences to rise to the level of quality citizenship.
September 30	Carol Corbridge	LIGHTWEIGHT BACKPACKING FOR BOOMERS AND OTHERS: Enjoy this Power Point presentation and hands-on demonstration of lightweight backpacking gear.
October 7	Denise Baxter	ASHLAND ARTISAN GALLERY AND ART CENTER: Find out what the new Art Center in Ashland can offer our community at large!
October 14	Bob Smith	THE RAKE'S PROGRESS: We will look at and discuss the eight engravings by William Hogarth that comprise his cautionary tale.
October 21	Marilyn Moore	COOKING FOR FUN (OR TWO ON A BUDGET): Come join us for this cooking class for seniors with food safety addressed.
October 28	David England, OD	THE AGING EYE: Participate in a discussion on several degenerations and diseases seen in the aging eye.
November 4	Marc Ratner	E. E CUMMINGS: This lecture includes readings and commentary on one of the most imaginative poets of modern American writing.
November 11	John Fox	WHY THE ALLIES WON WWII: Discuss the forces that the allies brought to the table to prevail against the German forces in WWII.