

Prerequisite Coursework for Admission to the MAT Program: SOCIAL STUDIES Endorsement

General Admission Requirements for ALL Single Subject Areas

Letters of Recommendation

Two letters documenting two separate, successful experiences working with groups of children or adolescents. Experiences in public schools are preferred, and experiences working with students at the middle and high school ages are recommended.

Bachelor's Degree

Program participants must have a Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university in a field appropriate to the specialty endorsement.

Grade Point Average

Applicants should have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 in the most recent 90 quarter or 60 semester hours of undergraduate work and a 3.0 for courses completed in the selected endorsement area. Applicants who have a GPA lower than 3.0 may apply for post-baccalaureate admission.

Requirements Specific to the Social Studies Endorsement

Degree Major

Applicants to the MAT program in Social Studies must hold a baccalaureate degree with a major in one of the social sciences (Anthropology, Economics, History, Geography, International Relations, Political Science, Psychology, or Sociology) (or coursework equivalent to a major in the social sciences).

Required Coursework in Social Studies

The ideal candidate will have satisfied a minimum of 54 quarter credits (36 semester credits) of Social Science coursework, including the following:

- 8-9 credits of American History (entire sequence of American History)
- 3-4 credits in Economics (micro or macro)
- 3-4 credits in American political institutions
- 3-4 credits in Human or World Geography
- 3-4 credits in Psychology, Sociology, or Anthropology
- 9-12 credits in world studies (meaning non-US, emphasizing international area studies and/or cross-cultural topics. World Civilizations or similar courses will count.) At least 3-4 credits must have a world history focus and 3-4 credits must have a contemporary focus.

Testing

Admission to the MAT Single Subject Program requires a passing score on a basic skills test. Score reports from the basic skills test must be submitted at the time of application. If the test has not been passed by that time, the score report must still be submitted. The test may be re-taken and passing scores must be submitted prior to the program start date. The basic skills test is waived for those who already hold a master's or doctoral degree.

Applicants may choose from one of the following options:

1. Essential Academic Skills (EAS) Test (Reading, Writing, and Mathematics subtests). Information at ORELA website
2. Praxis Core Academic Skills for Educators (CASE) Test (Reading, Writing, and Mathematics subtests). Information at Praxis website
3. California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST) (Reading, Writing, and Mathematics subtests). Information at CBEST website. NOTE: CBEST no longer offers the option of direct reporting to Oregon universities. Students who choose this option must deliver their official score report directly to the School of Education.
