

Intergenerational Discussions with Students in Developmental Psychology at Southern Oregon University

A psychology professor at SOU is seeking community volunteers to participate in intergenerational discussions with SOU students. If you want to join either or both discussions, please email Noriko Toyokawa, Associate Professor of Psychology, at toyokawan@sou.edu by October 25.

Discussion 1: On Golden Pond 2024 Version

Date & Time: 8:30 a.m. - 10:20 a.m., Thursday, October 31

Location: SOU campus (TBA)

In this session, community volunteers and SOU students will collaborate to modify the screenwriting of selected scenes from On Golden Pond (1980). Participants will explore how the older male character can be portrayed more effectively. Based on insights from the discussion, SOU students will create short videos using an AI tool. Participants will receive a link to access the free movie.

Discussion 2: Community Building Breakfast

Date & Time: 8:30 a.m. - 10:20 a.m., Tuesday, December 3

Location: SOU campus (TBA)

Join us to discuss life transitions, the purpose of life, how to manage education, work, and relationships, and how we can foster community across generations. Breakfast will be served to all participants.

Southern Oregon University is an official member of the Age-Friendly University Global Network.

Age-friendly
University
Global Network