GRAPHIC STANDARDS 2025

SOUTHERN OREGON STATE RAIDERS

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this guide is to define the elements of the university brand identity system, state the rules for their use and provide references to assist you in their implementation. Examples are shown to serve as models for both existing and new design applications.

Southern Oregon University retains all ownership rights associated with the images shown in this publication. This expressly includes the determination of the appropriateness of all images, such as how and where these images are reproduced and displayed. The standards described herein must be followed when reproducing university materials, regardless of where the materials are produced or the source of funding.

If you have a question about the standards or need original logo materials, please contact:

- Design Examples

UNIVERSITY IDENTITY

Southern Oregon University's institutional image and strong brand identity serve as important tools to further the university's strategic goals. The consistency of university messages and unified graphic identity play a key role in the success of this effort.

Standards have been outlined in this guide to establish the proper use of SOU logos thus eliminating confusion and helping to create a stronger image. We encourage you to refer to and become familiar with the Style Guide and to apply its rules to any communications or materials you develop on behalf of the university.

Why following the rules set forth in the Style Guide is important:

- To maintain a consistent image because each communication reflects on the university as a whole and messages from internal entities build upon one another and increase the overall impact.
- To avoid confusing our audiences by presenting a consistent visual identity so we distinguish our institution from our competitors.
- To show unity of purpose. Visual consistency relays that the university is unified, even while it pursues a wide range of interests, which is an attractive image to potential faculty, staff and students.

LOGOTYPE FAMILY

To provide for the needs of a university identity program, a family of related marks has been designed. This allows for targeted logo usage while retaining the major visual themes of the parent logo, the formal word mark. Each mark has its own specific arena of usage and should be used only when appropriate. These usages are outlined in this guide.

These are the primary logotypes for the Southern Oregon University Identity System:

- Formal Word Mark (horizontal and vertical formats)
- Official Seal of the University
- Informal Word Mark
- Spirit Mark
- Mascot "Rocky"

FORMAL WORD MARK

LOGOTYPE FORM - STRUCTURAL

The primary element of identification for Southern Oregon University is the formal word mark (logotype). Its purpose is to establish the identity and attain easy recall and recognition for the university in a competitive graphic environment.

The logotype has the following distinguishable characteristics:

- The initials “S” and “O” are placed above a unique “U” and connected by two rules.
- The word “Southern” is set in upper and lower case defining the regional aspect of the university.
- The descender of the “R” character in the word “UNIVERSITY” has been offset to a lower baseline.

The specific visual relationship of the letter forms of the logotype are fixed and may not be altered in any way. Due to physical size limitations, both horizontal and vertical configurations are provided. The structure of the SOU logotype as illustrated in Figure 1 and Figure 2 are the only approved and acceptable structures.

LOGOTYPE FORM - STRUCTURAL DON'TS

The logotype may never be redrawn, reconstructed or altered in any way, nor may any other letter forms or styles be substituted for it.

Special photographic or "effect" treatments such as outlines, italicizing, curving, rotating, tapering, compressing, expanding, distorting and perspectives may not be utilized.

LOGOTYPE USAGE - COLOR PALETTE

The approved colors, Pantone 186 red and black, are an integral part of the identification system.

White is a passive color in the design.

The acceptable color usage of the logotype as follows:

Pantone 186 and Black on light background to be used when printed on white (Figure 4) or light-colored background. (Figure 5)

White and Black on red background (Figure 6). The logo should never appear on any red background than Pantone 186.

LOGOTYPE USAGE - COLOR PALETTE DONT'S

Figure 11 represents some examples of color usage considered unacceptable for impeding the logotype's dominant presence and readability.

Pantone 186 and Black logo should never appear printed on a background which has an equivalent value darker than 50% black

The logo should never appear printed on a textured background

Pantone 186 and White logo should never appear printed on a background which has an equivalent value lighter than 30%

The logo should never appear as a background for overprinting or as a background pattern of any kind.

Pantone 186 and White logo should never appear printed on a background which has an equivalent value lighter than 30%

The logo should never appear printed on a textured background

The logo should never appear as a background for overprinting or as a background pattern of any kind.

FORMAL WORD MARK

LOGOTYPE USAGE - SINGLE COLOR

The logo should not appear printed in a single color other than black. There are two exceptions to this standard:

- #1 Situations that are unavoidable due to mechanical limitations such as printing an architectural blueprint.
- #2 Printing the logotype in an unconventional manner such as stone signage or gold jewelry. In these cases, the entire logotype is to be printed as a solid or fair representation of the color version.

IMPORTANT: The usage of color is strictly limited to the acceptable usages described in this section. Colors may never be transposed between elements of the logotype, nor may other colors be substituted for them.

Figure 12

Black and 50% Black on white background (Figure 12) The entire logotype prints in black when necessary. Pantone 186 red is represented by a 50% screen of black.

Figure 13

Reversed to White (Figure 13) The entire logotype reverses out of a color or image to White when necessary. Pantone 186 red is represented by a 50% screen of black. When reversing out of red, see instructions on Figure 6.

Note: Black block here are only to show logo in reverse. Containing blocks are never part of the logo's design.

LOGO USAGE

The official seal of the university has been designed for the purpose of authentication. Usage is strictly limited, and should be protected above all other marks as exclusive. It represents the authority and authenticity of Southern Oregon University as an institution of higher education.

The logo has the following distinguishable characteristics:

- The unique SO - U Informal Word Mark.
- Two feathers symbolizing location and heritage
- The inset date 1872 - the date of establishment for SOU

These three features represent qualities of tradition, authority and the integrity of the university. The specific visual relationship of the letter forms of the seal are fixed and may not be altered in any way. The structure as illustrated in Figure 14 is the only approved and acceptable use.

Figure 14

IMPORTANT: The seal should never appear printed in an informal setting or where the standards are not protected. The seal should not be reproduced at a size smaller than 1" in diameter. The usage standard for the Seal is strictly limited to the acceptable examples displayed in Figures 15 through 19. It may never be redrawn, reconstructed or altered in any way, nor may any other letter forms or styles be substituted. Special photographic or distortion treatments such as outlines, italicizing, curving, rotating, tapering and perspectives may not be utilized. Refer to Formal Word Mark Figures 3 and 11 for examples considered unacceptable.

COLOR USAGE

The approved colors, Pantone 186 and black, are integral part of the identification system. White is a passive color in the design that comes to the forefront in some applications. The acceptable color treatments of the logo are as follows:

Figure 15

Pantone 186 and Black on a White Background (Figure 15) This seal is to be used when printed on white or light-colored background

Figure 16

Black on White Background (Figure 16) This seal is to be used when printed on white or light-colored background. The red elements are represented by a 50% screen of black

Figure 17

Blind Embossed, Foil or Metal (Figure 17) This seal art is to be used when physically embossing or stamping into official archival documents. The seal may be reproduced in metal foil for heat stamping, or cast in metal for plaques or for jewelry.

Figure 18

Watermark (figure 18) All elements are 20% black This seal is provided for the purpose of simulating a watermark on official documents.

LOGO USAGE

The secondary element of identification for Southern Oregon University is the informal word mark (logo). Its purpose is to support the brand identity and achieve easy recognition for the university in a competitive graphic environment.

The logo has the following distinguishable characteristics:

- The initials “S” and “O” are placed above a unique “U” and connected by two rules.

The specific visual relationship of the letter forms of the logo are fixed and may not be altered in any way. The structure and colors of the SOU logo as illustrated in Figure 19 are the only approved and acceptable structure and colors.

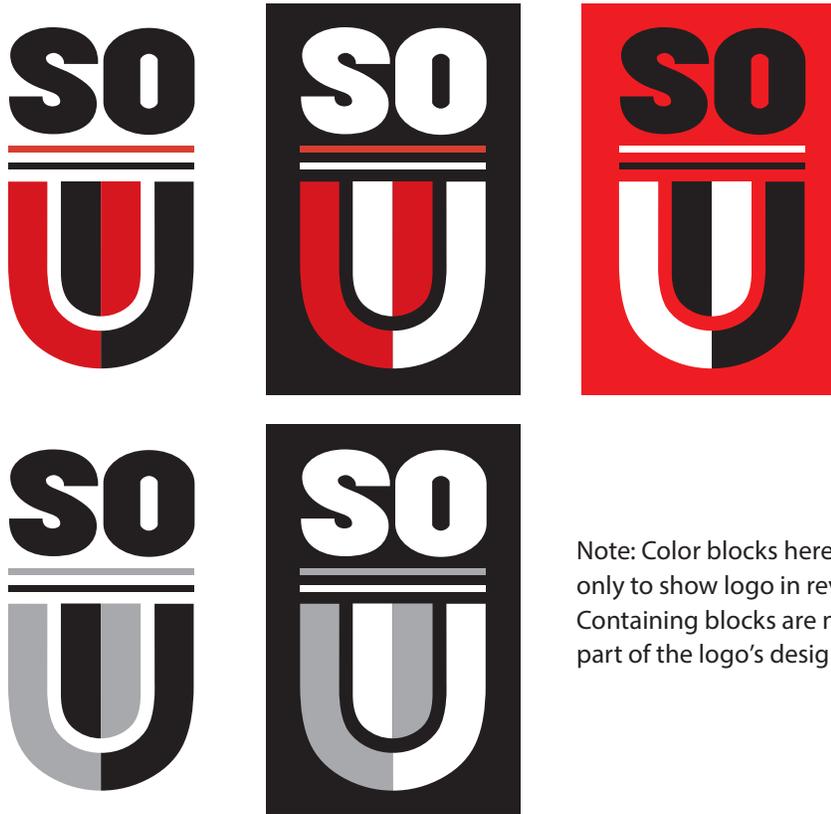

Figure 19

IMPORTANT: The usage standard for the Informal Word Mark is strictly limited to the acceptable examples displayed in Figure 15. Colors may never be transposed between elements of the logotype, nor may other colors be substituted for them. It may never be redrawn, reconstructed or altered in any way, nor may any other letter forms or styles be substituted. Special photographic or distortion treatments such as outlines, italicizing, curving, rotating, tapering and perspectives may not be utilized. Refer to Formal Word Mark Figures 3 and 11 for examples considered unacceptable.

LOGO USAGE

The spirit mark of the university has been designed to give the student body an informal mark that serves as a rallying point, and a unifying visual. Its purpose is to support the brand identity of the university's athletic department.

The logo has the following distinguishable characteristics:

- The descender of the "R" character has been offset to a lower baseline - matching the "R" of the university's formal word mark.
- The characters are connected by a bold black outline
- Southern Oregon University is spelled out in full and aligned with the descender of the "R" character

The specific visual relationship of the letter forms of the logo are fixed and may not be altered in any way. The structure of the Raiders logo as illustrated in Figure 20 is the only approved and acceptable structure.

Figure 20

IMPORTANT: The usage standard for the Spirit Mark is strictly limited to the acceptable examples displayed in Figure 20. It may never be redrawn, reconstructed or altered in any way, nor may any other letter forms or styles be substituted. Special photographic or distortion treatments such as outlines, italicizing, curving, rotating, tapering and perspectives may not be utilized. Refer to Formal Word Mark Figures 3 and 11 for examples considered unacceptable.

SPIRIT MARK

LOGOTYPE USAGE - COLOR PALETTE

The approved colors, Pantone 186 red and black, are an integral part of the identification system. White is a passive color in the design. The acceptable color usage of the logotype as follows:

Figure 22

Pantone 186 and Black on light background to be used when printed on white (Figure 21) or light-colored background. (Figure 22)

Figure 24

Pantone 186 and Black with white rule outline on red background (Figure 23), and on black background (Figure 24). The logo should never appear on any red background than Pantone 186 or CMYK equivalent.

SPIRIT MARK

LOGOTYPE USAGE - SINGLE COLOR

The logo should not appear printed in a single color other than black. There are two exceptions to this standard:

- #1 Situations that are unavoidable due to mechanical limitations such as printing an architectural blueprint.
- #2 Printing the logotype in an unconventional manner such as stone signage or gold jewelry. In these cases, the entire logotype is to be printed as a solid or fair representation of the color version.

IMPORTANT: The usage of color is strictly limited to the acceptable usages described in this section. Colors may never be transposed between elements of the logotype, nor may other colors be substituted for them.

THE SOUTHERN OREGON UNIVERSITY RAIDER SPIRIT MARK

Our spirit mark is a simple, powerful graphic intended for use in consistent fashion. The mark may be used as shown on white or a background color; however, the mark must always be used with its custom border shape when placed on any background other than white. This border is built into the electronic file—by using the correct EPS file, whenever the mark is placed on a background of any kind, the border will be present. The border is always white. These guidelines apply to print and electronic media, as well as clothing and memorabilia applications. Please help us maintain an exciting and consistent identity by using our Raider in the way it is intended. Thank you!

EXAMPLES OF IMPROPER MASCOT USE

The Raider always flies in white skies, the built-in border assures this.

The Raider is built from shapes, and doesn't need lines.

The Raider is never presented in the negative.

The Raider has a customized white border built into its original file (see page 20). Any border or outline effect such as what is shown here indicates that the wrong file is being used.

EXAMPLES OF IMPROPER MASCOT USE

The Raider always flies straight.

Never distort the proportions of the Raider.

ROCKY THE RAIDER SOU MASCOT

The SOU Rocky Raider Mascot is a graphic representation of our university symbol, the red-tailed hawk.

Having a polished graphic of Rocky allows the mascot to appear on SOU promotional materials.

- 1) The graphic represents Rocky as a friendly, approachable character embodying school spirit, health, and a positive, optimistic attitude.
- 2) Rocky reflects the natural coloring of the red-tailed hawk while also clearly sporting SOU colors of red, black, and white.
- 3) The mascot wears the Raider and SOU logos to fully support the SOU brand and identity wherever the mascot appears.

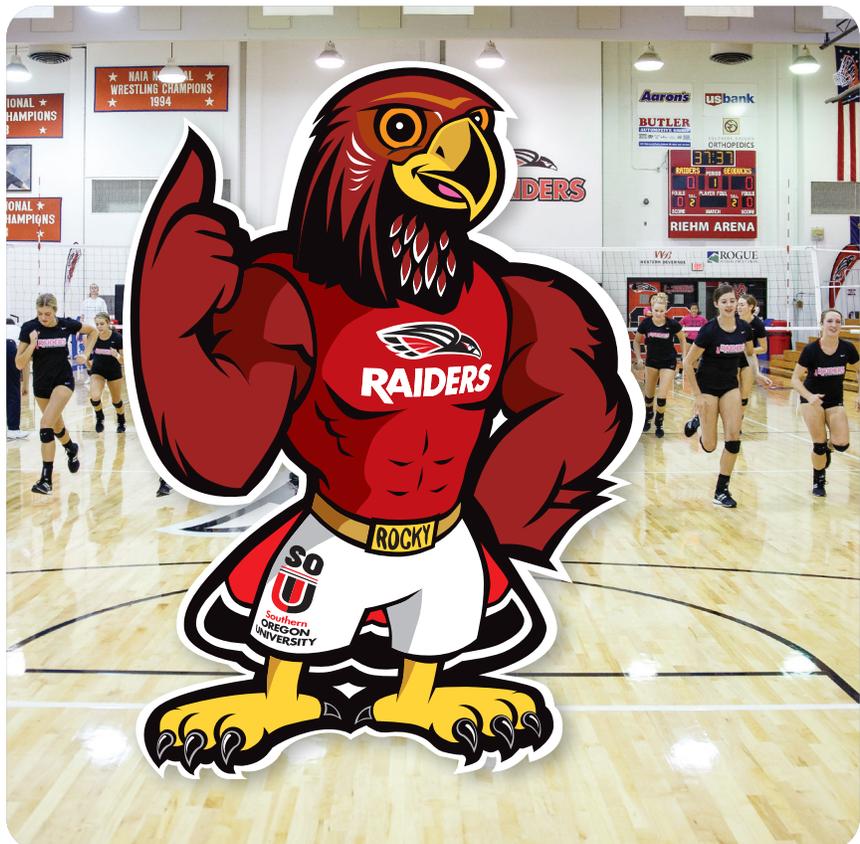

The Rocky graphic is appropriate for use in materials relating to school spirit and Raider athletics, not academics or SOU administration. When in doubt, check with the Marketing Office on implementing this asset.

The Rocky graphic has a built-in white “standoff” form that allows placement on colored backgrounds.

Rocky can be used facing left or right for layout flexibility

ROCKY THE RAIDER ADDITIONAL DEVELOPMENTS

Two new versions of Rocky the Raider have been in recent development and are set to take flight. Rocky can now be deployed soaring from left to right, or swooping off the page or out of the screen. Yo Rocky!

Please check with SOU Marketing for proper use of the Rocky Raider Mascot graphic.

ROCKY THE RAIDER MASCOT COSTUME

The SOU mascot costume has also been updated to reflect the new Rocky design—look for him at Raider athletic events, campus activities, and of course the Homecoming and Fourth of July parades!

New in 2025 is a version of Rocky in classic Bigfoot pose. SOU Admissions requested this development in order to support the element of our brand Northwest location.

OTHER LOGOS THAT SUPPORT SOU GRAPHIC IDENTITY

Many vital programs make up the diverse totality that is Southern Oregon University. Here are some examples of sub-brands that continue to present a consistent look and feel to the public (Figure 27.)

These logos have been created by the SOU Marketing Office and show program differentiation while maintaining brand continuity.

When developing sub-brands, consideration is given to :

- 1) school colors (red, black, and white)
- 2) typography (Futura in various weights)
- 3) dynamic simplicity (clean forms, careful spacing and alignment)
- 4) visual compatibility with existing approved SOU branding

MORE ON SUB-LOGOS

There are times when red and black are counter-intuitive to a program’s message. Figure 28 shows some examples of color variation that maintain brand consistence through typography and approach. These logos rely on use of the Futura typeface to echo the SOU brand and avoid sending mixed messages.

STATIONERY

Letterhead utilizes the Formal Wordmark in the horizontal format. You may order pre-printed stationery from SOU Print and Copy Services. Print and Copy will ensure your information is typeset according to brand standards. The letterhead is available in color and black only versions.

You may also request an MS Word doc with your department information included as header and footer with correct logo and typography. Please contact the Marketing Office with Word stationery requests.

2024-25 BRAND AESTHETIC

The brand for 2024-25 makes full use of traditional SOU colors, as well as display typography that reflects both the creative arts and more linear or science-based programs. Our story is well and truthfully told with clean, consistent typography, logo use, and a library of photographs sourced by the Marketing and Admissions teams. Customized QR codes continue to give readers fast access to our online presence. Support colors still make full use of the SOU brand palette, but Raider Red and Black are the heavy lifters.

SOU LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

WUE: The Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) is a regional tuition waiver program that allows students from participating western states to attend SOU at a reduced tuition rate, significantly lower than the standard out-of-state tuition. This makes obtaining quality education at SOU more affordable and accessible. At SOU, the WUE tuition rate can save students over $15,000 per year.

It's important for me to be able to create one-on-one connections with my professor and to have my needs available to me with any questions I have or help I may need in this area. SOU was the perfect fit.

WANA CASE > PORTLAND, OR > SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY MAJOR, SOCIAL JUSTICE MINOR, CERTIFICATE IN NONPROFIT MANAGEMENT > CLASS OF 2025

It was a great learning experience and opportunity that through my class and academic opportunities through various programs with Southern Oregon College. With many opportunities being student led. It is a great opportunity to develop skills in a supportive environment.
